Consultation process begins on changes to medical services

Dr Mehul Mathukia and Dr Suresh Mathukia at Mathukia surgery Ilford

SO HOW DO YOU FEEL?

PATIENTS and families are being urged to take part in a major public consultation.

GPs at the Barking and Dagenham, Havering and Redbridge Clinical Commissioning Groups (CCGs) are asking residents for their views on plans to reshape local services.

The proposals include creating a new community treatment team and an intensive rehabilitation service so more local people would receive care in their own homes.

The three existing community rehabilitation units would also be merged into a single base that would be located at the current site at King George Hospital in Goodmayes.

Dr Mehul Mathukia, Redbridge CCG's clinical director for integrated care, said: "We are suggesting these changes to make services better. We've known for a long time that too many people, especially older people, are staying for too long in hospital and this makes it harder for them to return home and live independently again."

The community treatment team, which is already being trialled, provides short term intensive care and support for people experiencing a health or social care crisis.

The team looks to make sure people can be cared for in their own home rather than in hospital and people get home as soon as possible instead of staying in hospital.

Dr Jagan John, Barking and Dagenham CCG's clinical director for integrated care, said: "The services, known as intermediate care, are most often needed by older people to help them recover if, for example, they have a fall and hurt themselves making them less mobile and less able to care for themselves."

A 12-week consultation on the plans is now taking place and GPs are urging local people to have their say. The consultation will run until Wednesday, October 1.

GPs will also be attending a series of drop-in sessions during the consultation process.

GOLD AWARD: Leyton Sixth Form College has achieved the Investors in People Champion Gold Award

College wins gold award

LEYTON Sixth Form College (LSC) has achieved the Investors in People Champion Gold Award.

The award recognises excellence in people management, achievement in business practice and recognises staff engagement of a high order.

The assessor, an Investors in People specialist from Investors in People South of England reported LSC as an innovative college.

They said: "Most people are being able to put forward ideas and feel supported in implementing these ideas."

"Employee engagement is seen as a major strength at LSC and one of the best the assessor has seen in both public and private sectors.

"Consultation with and involvement of staff at all levels in the running of LSC is impressive and in a 'league of its own'."

"It was encouraging to hear people talk in terms of LSC being an organisation that enabled them to deliver work they are proud of and make a positive difference to the pupils."

The assessor also reported staff have a 'high level of intrinsic job satisfaction that drives a good amount of additional discretionary effort that LSC and its students undoubtedly benefit from'.

The learning and development of staff was also highly commended.

Principal Kevin Watson was delighted with the report and said at a time when many public sector workers are feeling the demoralising effects of funding cuts and redundancies, it is very gratifying to have kept up the momentum for improvement over a number of years.

He added: "I don't think you can have a college of informed, motivated and high-achieving students without informed, motivated and high-achieving staff. I am delighted to see the working culture we have created at LSC so strongly recognised."

Old and new come together

A NEW creative and business development was launched in east London this week.

The first phase of the Ice House Quarter, in Abbey Road, Barking, was officially opened by developers and council leader councillor Darren Rodwell on Monday.

The new development, designed by Cartwright Pickard Architects, features 134 residential units, 52 car parking spaces and 9,700 sq ft of creative and commercial space, which form an integral part of the wider regeneration of Barking's town centre.

Mr Rodwell welcomed the completion of the first phase of the project.

He said: "Barking and Dagenham is London's newest opportunity and we welcome investment into the borough."

"We have a proven track record of providing affordable living and working conditions in a well-connected location. We are investing and supporting housing and creative industries that will enhance the borough."

The Ice House Quarter has been built by Bouygues Development and has been developed around two listed buildings from the late nineteenth-century industrial era – The Malthouse and The Granary have already been converted and extended to provide workspace for the creative industry along with homes and office space.

Nicolas Guérin, managing director of Bouygues Development, said: "The Ice House Quarter development reflects the strong and trusting relationship we have built up with Barking and Dagenham Council and the Greater London Authority."

"This new riverside quarter will offer new places to live, work and create, whilst respecting the environment and the historical and artistic heritage of the area."

MORE than 22,000 people turned out for the Essex summer festival of the year at Village Green on Saturday.

Local bands Youth Club and Dan le Sac vs Scroobius Pip joined with international award winning musicians like Beth Orton and Eddi Reader for another successful day at Chalkwell Park, Westcliff.

The party atmosphere was complimented by sunshine for most of the day as people of all ages arrived at the event for a sixth consecutive year.

Fans travelled from all over the county.

Anita Hatcher, from South Woodham Ferrers, said: "We usually go to the Essex Polo event at Hylands House, but this is much better. We're so pleased we came."

Debby Rose, from Rayleigh, said: "This is a brilliant festival. It cost £10 this year, but it's great value for that. The music and bands have been great."

Last year's headliner, Wilko Johnson, made a brief appearance backstage to watch his son's band Eight Rounds Rapid after recently recovering from cancer surgery. The Village Green stage crowd sang happy birthday to him for his 67th birthday, which was on Sunday.

Music lovers enjoyed watching more than 100 acts perform across multiple stages from 11am until after 9pm.

Or advising the Bank of England on subsidies for first time buyers? Perhaps being part of the Disasters Emergency Committee tasked with rebuilding Haiti following the earthquake? Or working with the United Nations to ensure global food security?

Whether it's working out how the world will house a population heading towards 9 billion people or providing housing repair advice to people affected by the recent floods across Britain, with more people and evolving lifestyles, we're facing new environments in which to adapt.

At the heart of today's biggest global construction, infrastructure, land use and housing provision challenges, is a profession that doesn't first come to mind, but is the main artery to their existence – chartered surveyors. Globally, the profession is in high demand and over 50% of newly qualified professionals come from outside the UK.

The scale of these world challenges mean we need the brightest and the best to work in the UK and overseas and to do that means tapping into talent from diverse backgrounds and skillsets across the full breadth of the UK workforce.

As the CEO of the world's largest professional body, which sets and enforces standards across land, property, infrastructure and construction, Sean is passionate about diversity in all its forms. He is launching 'Surveying the Future', a new campaign to attract more talent to this rapidly changing industry and believes that it has an important role to play to demonstrate the wholesale culture change taking place in the profession.

"The world needs to invest as much in infrastructure over the next 18 years as it has invested in infrastructure today," says Sean. "Chartered surveyors will be critical to shaping this new world but these new challenges require a new level of thought diversity, which means building a more diverse profession."

At present chartered surveying is largely white, male and middle class. Just 13% of chartered surveyors are female and while that rises to 28% among students and trainees, it still leaves chartered surveying trailing behind professions like law, where 47% of solicitors are female, and accountancy, where 44% of full-time accountants are women.

"This has to change. Organisations within the industry recognise that greater diversity of thought is likely to be their biggest business advantage in the future. One of the problems is that influencers, such as teachers, parents and careers advisors are not aware of the broad range of surveying careers."

President of RICS, Louise Brooke-Smith, firmly believes that one of the greatest challenges is the leadership deficit, particularly in a number of areas where skills and collaborative leadership styles excel:

"Encouraging people to do better and achieve more can be helped significantly by making success visible, and that's relevant across all career paths. I think partly the reason why so few women are attracted to careers in construction, infrastructure, property and land is because there are so few successful females in the public eye to aspire towards. Our campaign will really drive through change in this area and highlight a broad diversity of talented professionals who are shaping the world we live in."

Name: Faye Nugent, MRICS

Having been brought up in the construction industry, with my father owning a Groundwork's company, I saw first-hand what a rewarding sector this is; how hard everyone worked and the dedication necessary to succeed.

After studying Travel and Tourism at University it became evident that I simply did not find this path challenging enough. After some serious due diligence and discussion with my father, I made the choice to study Quantity Surveying at Kingston University. I worked with Jackson Rowe sponsoring me through my Bachelor of Science.

The Malins Group is a property developer and investment company based in Weybridge. I am now responsible for cost and construction management across all of the Malins Group construction projects. This spans both their high end residential development division and the regeneration of their investment portfolio of circa 600 units. I am part of an all-female team and would strongly encourage the industry to women considering a career in construction.

Employer: The Malins Group
Role: Senior Quantity Surveyor

Over the last 5 years I've learned how professional the property and construction industry are. If you're buying a house no one ever realises how much documentation and professional rigour go into it. Add the tradesmen, construction workers who work exceptionally hard day-in-day-out and it's no mean feat. I really admire the people I meet on site and throughout my work.

I would wholeheartedly recommend a career as a chartered surveyor; with the caveat that attaining a RICS qualification is tough. It takes hard work, determination and an iron-will to succeed. You have to be good with people and know how to talk professionally and convincingly to tradesmen, clients, the public and stakeholders. You have to be adept at multi-tasking, project management and be prepared to network and ask a lot of questions. Your contacts will become invaluable.

"I am planning on building my own house in the near future, I'm sure the family will all get involved but at least I know I have the skills to manage and oversee the entire process myself!"

Shakespeare crash course

SCHOOL children at Henry Maynard School, Maynard Road, Walthamstow, got to learn about William Shakespeare as part of an education week.

Teachers put on workshops that involved youngsters getting to know the literature through role play and story telling.

"We have had a whole week dedicated to Shakespeare in this the 450th anniversary year of his birth," said assistant head Pauline Casbolt.

"We have staged performances of A Midsummer Night's Dream with teachers playing some of the fairies and managed to find ways of incorporating him across the curriculum, for example, creating timelines and doing sums based on key dates associated with his life."

Some of the workshops began with a crash course in aspects of the Elizabethan age including thinking what it might have been like arriving in London of 1600 for the first time and having to cope with sights and sounds of that overcrowded city.

"As a teacher, it was fantastic to see some of the quieter children come out of their shells and enjoy drama," said Year 2 teacher Kathryn Lupton. "They were given the opportunity to demonstrate their dramatic skills but it was not forced on them. This session really engaged the children with Shakespeare and has given them a zest for learning more about him."

Some of the lessons were provided by Shakespeare and learning specialist Jerome Monahan, of education consultants TT Education.

He said: "It would be easy to think Shakespeare plays and language might be a bit intimidating for these age groups, but not if made entertaining and engaging," said Mr Monahan.

"But, it is always terrific watching some of them enacting the opening of Macbeth, for example, with the witches and starting to think how the scene could be performed interactively at the Globe to keep everyone entertained."

Cat loses eye after being shot

INVESTIGATIONS have been launched after a cat was shot in the eye, leaving him partially blind.

The RSPCA is appealing for information after Alfie (pictured), a 10-year-old black moggie, returned to his home in Mead Crescent, Chingford, with blood around his eye.

The cat's owners, who were too scared to be named, originally thought Alfie had been in fight and he was taken to the vets.

It was decided that the only option was to remove the cat's eye before an air gun pellet was discovered lodged behind his eye.

Inspector Emily Collins said: "This was a horrific way to treat an animal.

"Alfie must have been shot right through the actual eye as there was no puncture wound anywhere and the bullet was lodged right behind the eyeball. Luckily for him he has survived, but will always wear the wounds with the loss of his eye, poor thing.

"We urge anyone with any information to come forward to let us know who may be behind this. It took a callous individual to aim for an animal's eye in this way, and we would like to do all we can to stop it happening again."

Vets claim the cat has made a full recovery and is coping well with just one eye.

The shooting was the third in a week after a fox was found with five bullets in its head and body in Chigwell and a cat was found in Hornchurch with an old bullet, in his head.

Both animals had to be put to sleep because of their injuries.

The latest RSPCA figures of cats being shot, dating back to 2012, show 799 were reported. This was an increase of 40 compared 2011 and in the first six months of 2013, 438 were received. Anyone with information should call 0300 123 8018.

PEOPLE power has proved successful after a medical practice agreed to scrap costly number for patients.

Managers at Handsworth Medical Practice, in Handsworth Avenue, Highams Park, agreed to get rid of an 0844 number following complaints from campaigners.

The surgery has agreed to revert back to a local rate number, which was previously in place back in 2012.

Josie Camplin, practice manager, claimed the phone line was cancelled following patient surveys.

She said: "The changes have been made because the 0844 was costing patients money and they had recently voiced their concerns in a survey.

"We had been looking to scrap the premium rate line for while but it has taken us a few months to phase out.

"We made no revenue on the number since it was introduced two years ago. I would like to thank our patients for their patience."

In May 2013, NHS England announced it was to crack down on GPs' use of premium rate phone numbers and threatened them with breach of contract notices.

The practice had to prove they were doing all they could to stop using the premium rate numbers.

A local rate number was introduced in parallel to the 0844 number, costing patients 4p a minute, until the practice agreed last week to scrap the number all together.

Jean Brailsford, from Highams Park, welcomed the change.

She said: "There were a great many complaints about the premium number.

"I am pleased the managers have finally listened to members of the community.

"A change was needed and it has finally come, lets just hope it doesn't return for the foreseeable future."

CarFest revs up for a feast of fun

By Mike Torpey

SEVEN will be the magic number when CarFest North takes centre stage at Cheshire's Oulton Park racing circuit next month.

The three-day extravaganza, hosted by Radio 2 DJ Chris Evans, is a celebration of fast cars, cool sounds and festival food – and together with sister carnival CarFest South, has raised more than £2million for BBC Children in Need in just two years.

This year's spectacular, from August 1-3, will feature Evans' own 'Magnificent 7' collection of Ferraris.

Sticking with the 'sevens' theme, track action will see a Rock Star Seven, Hot Rod Seven and Movie Car Seven as well as more familiar F1 and Rally Sevens.

And a special Anniversary Seven will include Pink Floyd drummer Nick Mason's Maserati 250F to celebrate the Italian company's centenary, while the Muscle Car Seven will feature Ford's new 2015 Mustang marking 50 years of the American classic.

Away from the track there

EXTRAVAGANZA: event is hosted by Radio 2 DJ Chris Evans will be stunts, displays, children's entertainers and the 'Britain's Best' pavilion showcasing food and drink created by small producers from throughout the UK.

The popular Cakes v Pies competition returns, too, with judges including TV personalities Mary Berry and Liverpool's Paul Hollywood while air displays will feature the RAF Red Arrows and Battle of Britain memorial flight.

Headliners among a host of top bands on the live music stage are Erasure (Friday, August 1), Simple Minds, Seasick Steve and Tom Odell (Saturday) and Jools Holland,

The Feeling and 10cc (Sunday).

Though Saturday is a complete sell-out, there are still tickets for the Friday and Sunday. More info is available on the CarFest website.

Three weeks later CarFest South will rock into Laverstoke Park Farm, the organic/biodynamic farm in Hampshire owned by former F1 world champion Jody Scheckter.

Last year Scheckter performed some demo runs in his title-winning Ferrari and Grand Prix winning six-wheeled Tyrrell F1 car, and he will be back in action over the bank holiday weekend.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973; and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. Classified Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these advertisements and not an alternative.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

(a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement; (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified legal and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

14. Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

15. Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

16. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect of an advertisement should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

ESSEX EASE INTO QUARTER FINALS

Cricket

Essex Eagles v Kent Spitfires
NatWest T20 Blast - South Division
Brian Jeeves reporting from Castle Park, Colchester

ESSEX Eagles eased into the quarter-finals of the NatWest T20 Blast competition with a comfortable 63-run victory over old adversaries Kent Spitfires in front of a capacity 4,500 crowd at Castle Park, Colchester.

Essex went into the game having won eight out of nine South Division matches, they knew that a victory would guarantee a place in the quarter finals. Kent have struggled this season in the shorter form of the game, however, they were buoyed by a 3-run victory over Sussex and were determined to continue where they left off at Hove the previous evening.

Kent skipper Rob Key won the toss and offered the hosts the chance to bat. And that looked like a masterstroke when Mark Pettini was on his way back to the pavilion with only the second ball of the afternoon, snared by James Tredwell off the bowling of Darren Stevens. Then, with just two on the scoreboard, Kent struck again. This time Jesse Ryder the man out, caught by Sam Billings via Mitchell Clayton's awkward delivery.

Ravi Bopara joined Tom Westley in the middle and Essex began to make headway. Indeed, by the time Bopara (23) fell in the field to Alex Blake off the bowling of Adam Riley, the home side were just six runs short of three figures. James Foster continued where Bopara left off but Westley was undoubtedly the star of the show, wooing the crowd with a hugely impressive century off just 55 balls, this included 10 fours and 6 sixes.

Essex closed on a mammoth 209-5 with Ryan Ten Doeschate (37) hitting 30 from the final over off the unfortunate Ben Harmison, this before being caught at long-off by Blake off the final ball of the innings. Foster remained unbeaten on 36.

Kent were never really in the hunt, and their chase started disastrously with Daniel Bell-Drummond caught by wicketkeeper Foster off Graham Napier without scoring. Then, Matt Salisbury emphatically removed Key's off-stump, the Kent captain had scored 4 with the visitors on 15-2. And it wasn't long before Fabian Cowdrey (1) was joining them back in the hutch, Napier taking the catch with Salisbury once again the bowler benefiting.

The Spitfires looked to gain some momentum. Sam Northeast and Blake moved them along to 61 before Blake was next to depart for 29, Greg Smith taking a smart catch off Ryder. This left the visitors with a mountain to climb, and the procession continued with Ben Foakes taking a towering catch off Tim Phillips to signal the end of Stevens. The Kent batsman had scored a plucky 19.

The quick reactions of Foster sent Northeast on his way, stumped for 12 as Essex continued to make light work of the Kent order. Great work in the field from Ten Doeschate ended a spirited knock of 25 from Billings, then the same combination of Ten Doeschate and Ryder extinguished any lingering hopes by seeing off Tredwell for 1. Ryder then bowled Claydon first ball, and the Spitfires' misery was complete when Riley (4) was taken by Pettini off Ryder leaving Kent floundering on 146 with Essex comfortable victors by 63 runs.

Essex players sign autographs for fans after the victory over Kent Spitfires

Essex now go into their next NatWest T20 game with Hampshire at Chelmsford on Tuesday 22nd July, in the knowledge that another win will confirm their place at the top of the table and ensure a home quarter final tie.

Essex: Pettini, Ryder, Westley, Bopara, Foakes, Ten Doeschate, Foster, Napier, Phillips, Salisbury, Smith.

Kent: Bell-Drummond, Key, Northeast, Blake, Stevens, Billings, Harmison, Tredwell, Claydon, Cowdrey, Riley.

■ Essex and Derbyshire drew their LV County Championship match at Chesterfield earlier last week.

On the final day Derbyshire set Essex an unrealistic target of 366 to win in just 60 overs.

The most notable performance came from Nick Browne who carried his bat through both innings, scoring 132* in the first and following it with 100* in the second.

Fellow centurion Ryan Ten Doeschate aided Browne in batting Essex to safety, skipper Wayne Madson and James Foster shook on a draw with the visitors on 243-4. Derbyshire 10pts Essex 10pts.

Pre-season round-up

By Brian Jeeves

PREMIER League West Ham United have continued to bolster their squad with the signing of Diego Poyet.

19-year-old Poyet, the son of Sunderland manager Gus Poyet, was formerly with Championship side Charlton Athletic. The midfielder has also appeared for England at under 17 level.

Sky Bet League One Leyton Orient have confirmed the sale of the club by outgoing chairman Barry Hearn to Italian businessman Francesco Becchetti.

Colchester United moved quickly to snap up highly rated Dan Holman after the striker rejected a new deal at Conference outfit Braintree Town. Holman, who had been on trial at Essex rivals Southend United, found the net 24 times in 55 appearances, and was a key member of the Iron team that pushed for a play-off place during the last campaign.

Dagenham & Redbridge continued their recent activity in the transfer market. Defender Luke Wilkinson has agreed to leave Victoria Road to team up with former Daggers boss John Still at Football League new boys Luton Town, while Matt Partridge has joined the east Londoners after spells at Reading, Bognor Regis Town and Basingstoke Town.

Also joining Dagenham is midfielder Josh Labadie following his release from relegated Torquay United. Labadie, who signed a two-year deal, has a wealth of Football League experience, also naming Shrewsbury Town, Cheltenham Town, Tranmere Rovers and Notts County among the clubs he's served, this after coming through the ranks at West Bromwich Albion.

Former Canvey Island loan goalkeeper Josh Vickers has signed his first professional contract at his parent club Arsenal.

Vickers, who starred for the Gulls in the Ryman Premier League and the Gunners FA Youth Cup team, told Yellow Sport: "I'm very pleased to sign my first professional contract with Arsenal, and would like to wish everyone at Canvey Island FC a successful season. I'm sure they will get promoted."

Gulls manager Danny Heale added: "Josh is a great lad, and a credit to Arsenal. He was brilliant to work with and we wish him all the best in the future."

Selected pre-season results:

Great Waking Rovers 0-5 Southend United, Brantham Athletic 1-4 Colchester United, Stevenage 2-2 West Ham United, Canvey Island 1-4 Dover Athletic, Maldon & Tiptree 0-3 Chelmsford City, Halstead Town 0-5 Concord Rangers, Ware 1-0 Witham Town, Thurrock 0-1 Dartford, Stanway Rovers 0-4 Braintree Town XI, Long Melford Town 0-7 Braintree Town XI, Harold Wood 1-3 Bowers & Pitsea.

Shrimpers start warm up on a winning note

Football

Great Waking Rovers 0
Southend United 5
Pre-season friendly by Rowland
Lyons at Burrough's Park

PHIL BROWN'S Shrimpers began their pre-season campaign with a comfortable win at their newly-promoted Ryman League hosts on Saturday.

New signings Ellis Brown and Miles Weston, trialists Craig Fagan and Romain Michael-Percil and Jack Payne were on target for the full-timers.

But, Rovers boss, Dan Trenkel was upbeat and said: "We could have gone in level at the break, but their level of performance gave us something to aspire to."

Fresh from a four-day training trip to southern Spain, United were quick out of the traps and took a sixth minute lead when Brown netted after Will Atkinson and Jack Bridge had created the opening.

Buoyed by their early opener, Blues piled on the pressure and Kevan Hurst continually tested Dan Blightly from long range, but United should have doubled their lead from close in when Lee Barnard missed a sitter from Hurst's square pass.

Rovers nearly made Southend pay before the break when Stuart Hepburn hit a dipping drive just over the bar and forced the underworked Dan Bentley into a smart block.

Southend introduced a completely different eleven at half-time and the fresher legs soon proved too much for their hosts.

Weston doubled the lead within two minutes of the restart from a Jason Williams assist, before a series of fine Blightly saves frustrated the lively Blues' attack which saw Ryan Leonard crash a 30-yarder against the woodwork.

But the contest turned into a rout in the last 12 minutes with the former Hull and Derby man, Fagan, Michael-Percil and the impressive Payne - with the goal of the game - sending the large travelling support home happy.

Trenkel added: "Today was the first of seven pre-season matches including a visit from a Dagenham & Redbridge side on July 23. We are first and foremost looking to stay up this season in the Ryman League, but a top half finish would be good."

Southend boss, Phil Brown, said: "Perhaps our fitness levels were too high today as they looking like they were playing on top of the ground and enjoying their football."

"Compare that to last season was a real struggle against decent opposition as they ended up getting the [league and cup] double this year. But, you can only beat what is put in front of you and we applied ourselves in the right manner."

Blues skipper, John White said: "If people say we slightly overachieved last season, then we are looking to do the same again this season."

GREAT WAKING ROVERS: Dale Blightly, Adam Seal, Adam Holmes, Carl Read (John Bradley 46), James Pugsley, Jay Smith (Gary Paterson 46), Stuart Hepburn, Max Kent, Ty Benjamin, Lewis Sparrow (captain), Nathan Fletcher.
SOUTHEND UNITED: First-half: Bentley, Wilson (trialist), Prosser, Aziam (trialist), Auger, Atkinson, Bridge, Clifford, Hurst, Barnard, Brown.
Second half: Ted Smith, White, Thompson, Banton, Coker, Fagan (trialist), Leonard, Payne, Michael-Percil (trialist), Weston, Williams.

Karlsson out as Vortex Lakeside Hammers recall Nilsson

Speedway

THE Vortex Lakeside Hammers have made their first team change of the season with the recall of club asset Kim Nilsson in place of Peter Karlsson.

Kim, who the club bought from Newport three seasons ago, has been in fine form since his late start to the season due to a motocross crash and is seen by the team as being a key to picking up more points on the road to ensure a play-off qualification place.

The move marks the end of Peter Karlsson's two and a half season stint with the club.

The Vortex Hammers Promoter Jon Cook said: "We are delighted to welcome Kim back to the Raceway. He's coming back in at a great time for him as he's riding and scoring well."

"We are very aware that in the past when Kim has a good meeting away we invariably win and that's going to be crucial over the rest of the season."

On Karlsson, Cook said: "PK and the club have mutually agreed that now is the time to make this change. Working with PK has been an absolute delight and he leaves with our best wishes and we thank him for some terrific moments over the last two and a half seasons."
